

What Did You Fight For, What Did You Bring Home?

MORAL INJURY IN THE LIVES OF MILITARY VETERANS

Conference

ARTWORK COURTESY OF DAVID SENIOR, AGOODSON.COM

April 17, 2015

Art Competition & Reception

featuring artistic and literary work by veterans and community members 914Works, 914 E. Genesee St.

April 18, 2015

Conference & Panel Discussions

featuring three panels that connect moral injury to spirituality, clinical research, and literary narratives

Room 500, Hall of Languages

Literary Reading

by the Syracuse Veterans Writing Group and guest writers

Goldstein Alumni and Faculty Center

This two-day conference will gather local, regional, and national scholars, clinical practitioners, writers, and artists to address the psychological, spiritual, and artistic dimensions of Moral Injury among veterans. Moral Injury is the damage done to one's conscience or moral compass when one perpetrates, witnesses, or fails to prevent acts that transgress one's own moral and ethical values/codes of conduct/understanding.

Co-Sponsors

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Departments of Veterans Resource Center, Institute for Veterans and Military Families, Office of the Vice Chancellor of Veteran and Military Affairs, The Psychology Department, David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics, Newhouse School, 914Works, Hendricks
Chapel & Chaplaincies, Student Veterans Association,
Women's & Gender Studies, The English Department,
The Writing Program, University College

LE MOYNE

SPIRIT. INQUIRY. LEADERSHIP. JESUIT.

Departments of History, Psychology, Peace & Global Studies,
The Jesuit Community, The McDevitt Center

TO REGISTER PLEASE VISIT:

<http://moralinjuryproject.syr.edu/april-conference/>

FOR PRESS AND INFORMATION QUERIES ABOUT THE CONFERENCE, E-MAIL US AT: anmiller@syr.edu

PLEASE VISIT OUR WEB SITE FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

moralinjuryproject.syr.edu